

COMPANY HISTORY

From the early 70's Relf Distributors had been the creator and distributor of the very popular 'Feltonmix' shower mixer. In 1989 a new company took over the production and distribution of the 'Feltonmix' then Noeline and Graham Yearsley purchased the remaining company calling it Relf Distributors 1989 Ltd.

Sometime after purchasing the company, the name was changed to Waterware Products Ltd. The creation of the G12 building code created new opportunities in the valve market which led Waterware to begin our very successful relationship with Caleffi S.p.A Italy. Our growing reputation and success with the Caleffi brand, ultimately led to new successful relationships being formed with other high quality European manufactures such as Vaillant, Brugman, Grant, RBM, Messana, Fondital, BMeters, Ferroli and others.

The 'Waterware' operating philosophy together with it's range of products, which is constantly being refined to meet changing market demands, results in today's family company. Our sales team covers our merchant and trade customers NZ wide - supported by in house tech team offering custom designed plumbing and heating packaged solutions.
